AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

FORD'S ATHENEMM -This is positively Mr. Forrest's last week, and it may be the last opportunity our citizens will ever have of witnessing the great tragedian's unequalled personations. Tonight, Knowles' great tragedy of "Teil, the hero of Switzerland," will be presented, with Forrest as Tell, and supported by Mr. McCulloch as Gesler, and Miss Athena as Albert.

GROVER'S THEATER -This is the last night but one of the "Comedy Congress," an announcement which our play-goers will regret to hear. Mr. De Walden's American play, entitled "Upper Ten and Lower Twenty," is offered for to-night, with the whole strength of the company in the cast. The performance will conclude with 'Ici on Parle Francais,' with Setchell in one of his most humorous characters.

CANTERBURY .- Manager Percival announces five new stars for the week, and the re-engagement of Miss Julia Mortimer; who is somewhat of a pet with the patrons of the Canterbury A good bill is offered for to-night. "The Gipsy's Lay," "How to get a Wife," with Harry Rice as the Centraband. Mr. J H Budworth makes his appearance for the first time in two years. Miss Duval, the pleasing songstress, and Miss Millie Fowler, the graceful danseuse with appear.

CONTINENTAL - Madame Arabella took every one at the Continental by surprise on Saturday n'ght. Her vocal powers are of a superior order, and the audience showed their appreciation by continued rounds of applause. She will appear again this evening, supported by Miss Mary Wal-ton, who is acknowledged to be one of the most pleasing vocalists on the stage.

THE STEWART HOLLAND CLUB announce a grand ball at Franklin Hall for Monday evening, May 12. Every arrangement will be made to give the highest satisfaction to all who may attend. EXHIBITION MAY BALL .- To-morrow night the dancing exhibition of all of Prof Barnes' pupils will come off at Temperance Hall. A delightful entertainment is thus offered, and an opportunity of enjoying a dance, for at half-past nine the floor will be given up to audience.

PROF. F. R. LABBE's grand May festival is announced for Thursday, May 8. All the little folks look forward to this evening's enjoyment with much anticipated pleasure.

THE ODD FELLOWS' LEVER TO-NIGHT .- The managers of this affair have been at work pretty industriously to the end that the prestige of the annual entertainments of the Order should be kept up on the present occasion, and we apprehend that the guests of the evering will have no occasion to be dissatisfied with the results of their labors. The executive committee (with red badge), reception committee (white badge), and floor managers (blue badge), are all gentlemen of known energy, experience and taste, and any entertainment carried out under their supervision is bound to prosper.

First on the programme will be a short and interesting address by the Grand Master; then will come the concert by some of the best musical talent of the National Metropolis; after which the hall will be taken possession of by the floor managers for the benefit of those desiring to enter upon the joyous dance. The I. O. O. F. Levees are noted for bringing out all the pretty ladies of Washington; and sojourners here of the masculine persuasion who wish to see our city's utmost in the way of crinolinian fascination, had better be present to-night.

Moreover, the entertainment to-night has "an object," and that a good one; i. e , the advancement of the interests of the noble library of the Order, which is filling such a large measure of usefulness here. An evening's enjoyment promotive of such an object, is certainly not hard to take.

SECRET MEETING OF THE OPPOSENTS OF THE ADMINISTRATION .- Our Special, Thin edged, Everlasting, Unlicked Reporter About .- On Friday evening there was a private meeting of the "Na-tional Democrata" at the Franklin engine ball. We published on Saturday the resolutions and such other particulars of the meeting as the participants saw fit to divulge. Our special, thin-edged, everlasting, unlicked reporter (of Dem. Jackson Association fame) was present, however, and gives us the following supplementary particulars of the proceedings: Mr. John F. Enn's presided. Wm. Riggles, (ex-wood measurer,) of the First Ward, was opposed to the Administration. They had violated the Constitution; and Dick Wallach

was with them. He (Riggles) would support a negro in preference to Wallach W. A. Kennedy was opposed to bringing out any candidates until just before the election. He was happy to hear that Wallach would again be a candidate. They should use every exertion to have a Black Republican in the field also, and taen the anti-Lincoln men could slip in their man without any trouble. He was opposed to publishing the resolutions-it was not a ward meeting, but merely a private conference of all citizens of the city who were opposed to the party now in power, and he thought it was judicious not to have their proceedings made public, as not every one could be trusted. He could say one word in regard to the Fourth Ward, and hoped the rest of the wards would do the same. They had selected the commissioner of elections, and also their candidates for Aldermen and Council, but regretted to say that the old Fourth Ward would not give as large a majority as heretofore, in consequence of the absence of some of the most prominent workers of the ward baving sought a more congenial climate suited to their health. W. H. Funing was opposed to this secrecy. He was in favor of publishing the resolutions, and also have the candidates out in time. Come out square and fair! He knew the men who were wire-pulling in this ward on the other side, and was well acquainted with them, especially the young ones, and he would say here that if you don't go right to work, they will carry the old Second Ward. He was in favor of appointing commissioners right away; also have a man for each block in the different wards. But by all means keep your block committee quiet, for the other side are active and vigilant; don't mind what they say, but work; they never sleep, and especially a few days before the election. Grafton Powell (ex clerk) was for a straight-out ticket, and was opposed to Mr. Wallach anybow. J. F. Ennis said that all good men ought to rally in support of the ticket which they would present. This Administration ought to be repu-diated, and now was the time for the people to show their hands. Mike Fitzgerald was in favor of any man, Union or no Union; he would vote the ticket. J. F. Halliday moved to publish resolutions in the Times, which was got up for the purpose; and also the National Intelligencer and Star. If he could help it, he wou'd not have anything to do with the Star, it was not white enough for him. But on account of its large circulation, they had better put them in the Star. He thought it not well to attack Doug; if you did, he would fight back; and disguise as you will, the Star has a powerful influence on the masses. The resolutions above referred to, it will be remembered, read as follows: Resolved, That the officers of this meeting call a ward meeting for Wednesday evening next, 7th inst, of the National Democratic voters of the ward, and all others opposed to abolitionism, who are disposed to unite with us, for the purpose of nominating cardidates for the city councils; also, for appointing five delegates to a city convention, to select a suitable candidate for

Resolved, That we hereby invite the National Democrats of the other wards of the city to hold meetings and select delegates to meet in this hall on the 13th inst., at 8 o'clock in the evening, to nominate a candidate for the office of Mayor.

DRESS PARADE OF THE MARINES.-The first parade of the marines since receiving their new uniform took place at the Garrison this morning, in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen, who were highly pleased with the appearance and discipline of the battalion. The line was formed at 10 o'clock, the band and drum corps, under Prof. Scala and Drum Major Roche, taking the right, and the four companies, numbering nearly 400 men, marching into their places; after which they were reviewed by Brig General Barris, commandant of the corps. The battalion was then marched around the grounds several times, and were drawn up in line, where they went through the manual of arms in a style wi ich they are celebrated for; the movements being done on the instant, and the men moving as if they were part of a complicated machine. The new uniform-consisting of dark-blue coats with heavy yellow epaulettes and orange trimmings, light-blue pants, and regulation caps with a large brass frontispiece and a pempon of the smallest size—had the effect of setting off the corps to a better advantage than with the old uniform. The officers appeared in their old uniform, having been disappointed in receiving their new ones.

FATAL ACCIDENT —On Saturday afternoon, as the late train for Baltimore was passing the Re-lay House, Mr. Dorsey Pennington immped off, and his feet striking a mail beg, which turned with him, threw him back on the track, when several cars passed over the lower part of the body, nearly severing him and killing him almost instantly. Mr. P. was on his way to visit his mother (who resides near the Relay) at the time He was the foreman of the copper refinery at the Navy Yard, and was held in high esteem by his fellow workmen. The Grand and Union Lodges of Odd Fellows, of which he was a member, on hearing of the occurrence immediately sent a committee to bring in the body, which was ex-pected this morning. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED - Saturday Sergeant Cronin directed Roundman Turner to go to the Central Hotel, and take from there to the For h Ward station every article left by Barney Brady, ellas Bernard Bradly, who was taken from there the night before for attempting to shoot the proprietor Among the articles found was a complete suit of clothes, which was immediately identified as a suit stolen from the Washington Buildings several nights before.

Suspicious Sailors -Two men, dressed as sailors and representing themselves to be such, have been offering for sale to families residing at the Navy Yard fancy silks, cloths, grenadines &c., representing that they have just arrived from foreign ports, and that they succeeded in smuggling these goods over. The public has been swindled often with "smuggled goods."

"SYLE," NOT "LYLE."-The rector of Trinity church, who in a recent epistle to the Star expressed some natural solicitude that his name should not be misspelt, must feel considerably annoved at the manner in which his appellation is mangled by the newspapers. Our cotemporaries for the most part'call him " Lyle," though other changes are rung upon the quartette of letters as the name goes the rounds. Sylk is the name.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—S turday night, the house of Mr. J. Pfluger, near the West Market, was entered by a thief and about $4,000 in gold and Treasury notes was stolen from a bureau drawer It was supposed that it was done about eight o'clock, when Mr. P., who is a bacon dealer, was at the market, and his wife was busy in a different part of the house. No clue to the thief has been CAPTURED - Yesterday, a man rode rapidly through the streets of the Third and Fourth Ward. ANOTHER UNION VICTORY IN NEW MEXICO.

The War Department this forenoon received the following dispatch per telegraph Kansas Cirr, May 1 .- We have advices here from Santa Fe. The mail which has arrived brings the following intelligence: Another battle had been fought between General Canby and the Texas, at Paralto, on the Rio Grande, where the enemy had fortified themselves. General Canby defeated them. Our loss was 25 killed. We do not yet know the enemy's loss. General Canby made a detour and got below the enemy. Major Paul, with his command, was in the enemy's rear. Thus the enemy will probably be forced to surrender, as their only alternative is to do that or try to flee to the mountains, where the Indians friendly to the United States Government await them. THE RECENT NAVAL CAPTURES I'rom official reports of the recent capture of various vessels endeavoring to run the blockade, this morning received at the Navy Department. we make the following highly interesting extracts: April 26th, at 6 40 p. m., the U. S. steamer Flambeau, Lieut. Commanding Upshur, captured the schooner Active, under English colors, about 7 miles south of Stone, S. C. She was from Nassau, and purported to be bound for New York (') with a cargo principally of salt, coffee, and other articles now very much needed in a Southern port. The captain admitted that the families of himself and mate are residents of Charleston. She was sent to New York for adudication April 25th the U. S. steamer Uncas, Acting Master L. G. Crane, commanding, captured the schooner Belle. Capt. Crane reports that when about 30 miles off from Charleston, S. C., he made a sail running N. N. W , and proceeded on his course, intending to speak her. As he approached her, she have in stays and hauled E He then changed his course, and gave chase for two hours, when he fired a shot across her bow. She then hoisted the English ensign and continued her couse. Another shot was fired across her bow, to which no attention was paid; but a third, striking just ahead of her, caused her to heave to. She was from Nassau, N. P., and purported to be bound for Philadelphia, with a cargo of salt, pepper, and soap. The captain, on being boarded, claimed to be in distress, saying he had sprung his foremast and bowsprit the night before. When asked why he carried sail the nearest port. The schooner has been sent to New York for adjudication. April 19th, at 10:30 a. m., the pilot boat G. W. Blunt, J. R. Beers, commanding captured the rebel schooner "Wave," off the coast of South Carolina She is said to be sixty tons register, (valued at $3,500,) and had on board thirty-nine bales cotton. The captain, Wm. Ryan, and crew of four men, are residents of Charleston; the vessel belongs, as appears by her papers, to Messrs. Street & West, of Charleston, and was consigned to the house of H. Adderly & Co., Nassau, N. P. The papers contain positive orders to the captain to burn the vessel and sink his papers if in danger of capture. The consignees are for-on her so, he replied that he wanted to get into bidden to sell the cotton to the "Yankees" at any price. The cargo of the Ella Worley (Isabel) cap tured by the Santiago de Cuba, consisted of pig lead, sheet copper, iron (in bundles and slabs, zinc, cases of hardware (which proved to be Enfield rifles and swords,) nautical instruments. cotton-cards, drugs (quinine, potash, cream-tartar, soda, copperas,) carboys, castor oil, paint, indigo, soap, paper and stationery, cigars, can-dies, tailow, codfish, herring, mackerel, butter, cheese, bread, tea, alcohol, gin, and tooth

Many articles were found on board directed to Charleston, S C. Among others, two fine boxes isomely gotten , and inscribed to "His Excellency President Davis, from Jno. Frazer & Co., of Charleston." Her logbook was mutilated and names were cut out of such papers as could be laid hold of in the surprise of capture. Important papers were also dis-covered which it is thought will show her real character and destination. Several of the passen-gers and crew have avowed that she was bound gers and crew have avowed that she was bound to Charleston. Her captain is a resident of Charleston, with family there, and the engineers are also from there. She had on board a well-known Gharleston pilot, named Lockwood, engaged at high wages to take her in and out; and others of the officers and passengers are residents of the same place. The coal found on board of her was about sufficient for the voyage from Nassen to Charleston, but not to St. John's, and the sau to Charleston, but not to St. John's, and the sau to Charleston, but not to St. John's, and the quantity of water was small.

Besides the Isabel, the Santiago de Cubu selzed, April 26, off the coast of Georgia,—bearing for Charleston, S. C., when first discovered,—the schooner Mersey, with British flag and register, (dated Nassau, April 15;) "Elizabeth, of Charleston," visible on her stern under her new name. Papers incorrect: cleared from Nassau to Baitimore, April 21. Cargo—salt, coffee, soap, (manufactured in New York,) drugs, leather, rope, cotton goods, stationery, corn-brooms, matches, tea, sardines, saits or saltpeter.

Also, April 30th, within 15 miles of Charleston, seized schooner Maria, British flag and register, (dated Nassau, April 16) Left Matanzas 20th of March, with cigars, bound to Nassau (via Ragged Island for salt), but could show no register prior to that obtained at Nassau. Her former name (Sallie Rose, of Charleston,) is also visible under the new paint on her stern. Her cargo—salt, the new paint on her stern. Her cargo—salt, cigars and cotton-cards. Some of the crew of each of these schooners have said that a large sum of money was promised them if they were successful in running the blockade.
